Walk 4 Harbury, Bishops Itchington, Ladbroke and Southam

A circular walk of 13 km (8 miles).

Historical notes on points of interest are shown in italics.

Stiles referred to in the text may have been replaced with gates as part of an ongoing access improvement plan.

Start at the village hall, South Parade, Harbury. Harbury Village Hall was officially opened by John Profumo MP, who subsequently fell from grace through his unfortunate relationship with Miss Christine Keeler and Miss Mandy Rice-Davis. From the car park walk round the hall, cross South Parade and follow Ivy Lane opposite. At the Dog Inn continue straight ahead, passing the Bullring Garage and bearing ▶ along Hall Lane to its junction with the road to Ufton. Turn ◀ after about 100m, go into a farm entrance on the right and cross a stile diagonally ◀. Cross the small paddock, over a stile, keeping the hedge on the left. Pass through a very thick hedge, and cross an enormous field slightly diagonally ▶ heading towards Ufton Hill Farm. Keep the farm on your left then the landfill site. At the bottom of the field, bear ◀, again keeping the landfill site on your left. Leaving the boundary fence, pass through a narrow way through young trees, into a large field. Bear diagonally ▶ downhill to a stile. Continue parallel with the river, crossing another stile onto the main road. Turn ▶ crossing the River Itchen and immediately ◀ into a large pasture. Go diagonally ▶ to a stile heading towards a ruined barn. Keeping it on your right continue to another stile, downhill to another, over to a bridge. DO NOT CROSS, but go uphill to meet the main road again.
